Instructions to candidates who have exercised Choice-2.

- Candidates who have exercised Choice-2 for the seat allotted in first round and paid the fees are participating in the second round by holding the seat allotted to them in the first round.
- All the higher order options will be displayed on the option entry screen.
- Candidates can alter, modify, delete or re-order the higher order options.
- Higher order options means, presume that the candidate has entered 40 options, and the seat is allotted for his / her priority number 23 in the first round, then the priority number 1 to 22 are the higher order options.
- If higher order options are allotted to them, the earlier seat will automatically stand cancelled. OR
- If any of the Higher Order Options are not allotted, then the seat allotted to them in the first round will remain with the candidate.

Additional Important Instructions for First Round Choice 2 Candidates

- (a) The Choice 2 candidates are participating by holding a seat allotted in the First Round, if any seat is allotted to them in this round then their First Round seat gets added to the seat matrix immediately and is offered to the next eligible candidates in the order of priority of options.
- (b) While modifying the order of options or deleting the options (adding the new options in case of new college added to the seat matrix) candidates are advised to give only such options that are better than his / her allotted seat. If the modified option gets allotted they lose their old seat. If none of the seats are available then the candidate's earlier seat is retained.
- (c) For Choice 2 candidates the seat allotted in the First Round will be considered as last option. The Choice 2 candidates should be very careful while submitting the options. One should understand that the seat allotted in the First Round will become the last option, it means all the higher options saved by the candidates will be treated as options for seat allotment.
- (d) All the higher order options will be displayed for entry of options, if any candidate is intending to retain the same seat which is allotted in the First Round, then he / she has to delete all such options which is displayed on the option entry portal, then the seat allotted in the First Round will be retained in this round also.

Instructions to candidates who have exercised Choice-3.

- Choice-3 candidates are participating in this round without holding any seat allotted to them in the first round.
- All the already entered options except the allotted option will be displayed on the option entry screen.
- Candidates can alter, modify, delete or re-order the already entered options.

Additional Important Instructions for First Round Choice 3 Candidates

- (a) The Choice 3 candidates are participating without holding a seat allotted in the First Round, if any seat is allotted to them in this round then such seat will be confirmed in their favour or if no seat is allotted to them then they will not be having any seat in their favour.
- (b) All the options will be displayed except the allotted option, for modifying or deleting the options.
- (c) While modifying the order of options or deleting the options (adding the new options in case of new college / course added to the seat matrix) candidates are advised to give only such options that are better than his / her allotted seat and for those options candidates are willing to join the college / course in case the seat is allotted.

NOTE: Consequential Vacancies which arise after their turn cannot be claimed.
