

Instructions to candidates of Regular second round (Revised):

1. All the candidates who have collected the admission order should compulsorily collect fresh allotment order in case there is any change in the allotment. The fees paid (if any) by the candidates will be adjusted upon allotment of a seat in this round, and if any excess fees paid at KEA the same will be refunded. If any fees paid to the college has to be collected from college by candidates themselves.
2. The last date of surrender of NRI/MNG is 23 May 2017, 4.00 pm at KEA only.
3. The candidate who have surrendered regular allotment seat & reported to NRI seat, and by virtue of the revised allotment of seat if the same seat is allotted then they need not have to visit KEA for surrendering the seat.
4. The candidate who have surrendered regular allotment seat & reported to NRI seat, and by virtue of the revised allotment of seat if there is change in the seat allotted then they will have the option to choose the re-allotted seat.
5. The candidate who have surrendered NRI / MNG & retained regular allotment. If they are interested to choose the re-allotted seat they will have to choose the surrendered seat or the re-allotted seat.
6. The candidate who have surrendered NRI / MNG or regular allotment seat. If they are interested to choose the re-allotted seat they will have choice to choose the surrendered seat or the re-allotted seat again.