Lowering of qualifying percentile of NEET MDS 2017,
Schedule for Registration and Verification for admission to PG Dental Courses – 2017-18

Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, New Delhi (Dental Education Section) in their order V. 12025/181/2016-DE dated 11-05-2017, has lowered the qualifying percentile of NEET MDS 2017 in respect of candidates belonging to the General Category, SC / ST / OBC and person with locomotory disability of lower limbs for admission to PG Dental Courses for the academic session 2017-18 only. Director, Medical Education in their letter dated 13-05-2017 has requested KEA to conduct counseling only to those candidates who may become eligible due to lowering of percentile for admission to PG Dental Courses for Government and Private Seats (Except NRI / Management). The detail of qualifying percentile for admission to PG Dental Courses can be seen on the NBE Website.

Those candidates, who have got the eligibility due to lowering the qualifying percentile for admission to PG Dental courses, are only eligible to participate in this round. Therefore, such interested eligible candidates have to download the registration form and attend the document verification with all the relevant original documents along with a DD for Rs.1,000/- (DD in the name of Executive Director, KEA payable at Bangalore) on 17-05-2017 between 10.30 am to 1.30 pm.

The candidate who becomes eligible after verification of documents will only be considered for allotment of PG Dental seats in the second round of common counseling for Government and Private available Seats.

The eligible candidates have to submit all the relevant original documents for verification with one set of attested photocopies. Please read e-brochure for submission of mandatory documents.

No individual intimation will be sent to the candidates in this regard.

NOTE:

Those candidates who were having the qualifying eligibility percentile before the modification of eligibility percentile by Competent Authority, but failed to register / verify the original documents for the first round seat allotment are not eligible to participate in this round.
